What You Must Do During A Claim

The Insured Persons and their representatives must:

1. co-operate fully with us and any other person or persons authorised by us in the investigation, adjustment and/or settlement of any claim notified to us. That includes providing any other information we may require, including all documentation that we request to assist in the claim, for example invoices and receipts.
2. take all reasonable care to limit any loss.
3. not do anything either before or after a loss that limits, restricts or waives our legal rights without our prior written permission. For example, the Insured Person must not enter into any contract that limits, restricts, waives or otherwise impairs their right to recover from anyone who may be liable to them for a loss that is otherwise covered by this insurance.

Our Rights During A Claim

1. We may, at our discretion:
 - take full responsibility for conducting, defending or settling any claim in the Insured Persons' names; and
 - take any action we consider necessary to enforce the Insured Persons' rights or our rights under this insurance.
2. Where legally permitted under the law applying to this policy, we are entitled to request that any loss incurred by the Insured Person that may be covered by this policy is requested from either:
 - the Insured Person's payment card issuer; or
 - from any other existing insurance policy the Insured Person holds that may provide cover for such loss.

If part payment for any loss incurred is received by the Insured Person from either their payment card issuer or under any other existing insurance policy they hold, this policy will apply in excess of that part payment.

If the Insured Person's recovery claim from either their payment card issuer or any other existing insurance policy they hold is unsuccessful, either in whole or in part, we will deal with the claim in line with the terms, conditions, exclusions and limits under this policy.

Fraudulent Claims

If the Insured Person makes a fraudulent claim under this insurance:

- (a) the claim will not be paid; and
- (b) the Insured Person may need to return any sums paid to them in respect of the claim; and
- (c) by notice to the Insured Person, this insurance may be treated as having been terminated with effect from the time of the fraudulent act.

If this insurance is terminated under clause I. (c) above:

- (a) there will be no cover or potential cover in respect of a relevant event occurring after the time of the fraudulent act. A relevant event is whatever gives rise to cover or may give rise to cover under this insurance (such as the occurrence of a loss, the making of a claim, or the notification of a potential claim); and
- (b) all premiums paid will be retained.

This condition will only apply to the insured person(s) who made or attempted to make a fraudulent claim under this insurance.
