P&O Cruises reports record booking Wave period

P&O Cruises has reported its strongest Wave ever, with a record-breaking number of bookings made during the period.

The most popular destination was the Norwegian fjords, with guests also choosing holidays in the Caribbean and the Western Mediterranean.

P&O Cruises president Paul Ludlow said: “This year’s Wave season has surpassed all expectations with record-breaking days throughout the period. It’s particularly encouraging to see that guests who are new to cruising are recognising the excellent value for money, fantastic destinations and unique experience on a P&O Cruises holiday.”
